GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 CINCINNATI, March 18 .- On the eve of his departure for Virginia, Captain Ewing, of the New York Baseball Club, was running over some of the notably strong and weak points in the makeup of the 12 clubs.

"Frankly," said he, "I believe New York would have had a better chance to nail the flag if we had been awarded Dan Richardson, but we are going to surprise some of these scoffers. I wish they could have seen the way 'Shorty' Fuller played at Hot Springs. People up at the polo grounds will forget that there ever was such a man as Glasscock. Where do I think the Giants will land? Well, not below third, to my mind. The Bostons are very strong, but if their pitchers fail you can't tell how far they'll drop. I believe Clarkson has seen his best days. Jack Stivetts will strengthen them wonderfully. He is one of the best pitchers in the country to-day."

About the Reds, "Cincinnati has in Elton Chamberlain one of the coolest heads in the business. He never succumbs to the rattles and keeps putting them over the plate in just the ame manner, no matter whether one or 20 hits has been scored against him. There is one club upon which it will be well to keep continued Captain Ewing, "and that is Cleveland. That team is a corker and it is not making much of a stir about it either. In Davies they have secured the pick of Western pitchers. Their outfield is first-class and just look at the way they are fixed behind the bat. Charley Zimmer is as good an every-day catcher as there is any-where and Jack O'Connor is just a, shade below him. Jesse Burkett has proved to be a great acquisition. I look for Cleveland to be in the thick of the fight and away up in the first division. I can see nothing ahead for Chicago. Now that Pfeffer is gone the good an every-day catcher as there is any infield is lamentably weak.

Anson Will Miss Pfeffer,

No one will miss Pfeffer more than 'Old Anse,' for everybody knows that he has not been playing first base well for a couple of seasons. His slugging is all that has kept him in the game. The Michigan man, Kulkaska Pipp, is a physical giant, but he is as awkward as a Cherry Hill belle would be at a ball of the '400.' He does not seem to be able to get down after a grounder, and he uses his hands as if they were a pair of scoops. 'Anse' has landed as a good man in Meeker, that Sioux City be able to help Hutchinson out.

"When you come to specify all the clubs it is a bit dangerous, for there are more than half a dozen favorites to rate in the first Captain Ewing went no farther, but added that the race would be one of the prettiest in the history of the game,

OUITE A SCHEME

Schaefer and Catton to Establish a Billiard

Academy in Paris. CHICAGO, March 18.—[Special.]—Jake Schae-fer is going to Paris to show the Frenchmen how billiards should be played. He is going to show them in his own academy, too. The success that Eugene Carter has had in the French capital has tempted Jake to make a bold move and face the French lion in his den, as it were. He and Billy Catton, than om there is no shrewder man in sporting circles, have figured out a scheme which, for audacity and originality, rivals anythin attempted in sporting circles of late years. After next Saturday's match with Frank Ives, should Jake win, he will accept Slosson's challenge. With this game out of the way he and Catton will sail for Paris and pen an academy of their own, where they is he ready to meer all comers in their spective classes for any amount of money, aris is now the Meeca of billiardists and is is now the Meeca of billiardists and Americans expect to make some money of their scheme. Jake will not neglect business here, but will probably make iodical trips to the French capital. If neademy is a success Catton will probylocate in Paris permanently and run place. He and Jake are a triffe rusty in ir French, but will probably pick it up felly. in will be curious to note how the French experts will take this move. They are such a jealous, narrow-minded lot, it is said, that they will probably raise a dreadful cry when they find the Wizard in their midst. Even, however, should they attempt to boycott the room, Jake feels that there are enough Americans in Paris to make the place a suc-

THE SHOW ENDED.

One of the Most Successful Dog Exhibi tions Ever Held in Pittsburg Closes. The dog show is ended and its termination winds up the best dog show ever held in Western Pennsylvania. The attendance has been larger and the quality of dogs better than ever seen in Pittsburg in the history of It is pleasing to know that some of the most prominent winners were local competitors. John Moorhead, with his Streathan itors. John Moorhead, with his Streatham Monarch, won no less than five prizes. The beg is beyond doubt one of the best bull terriers in the world and George Raper says so. John Carson also came in for glory among the bull terriers, and his Billy Bulger, bred by J. C. Mahler, of this city, is one of the finest young dogs ever shown here. In short, all the local dogs were good.

The management deserve all credit possible. That veteran of judges, Mr. Davidson, said last night that he had never seen a better managed show. The success of the present show, or the show that ended last evening makes it certain that Pittsburg will be a competitor for the best show in America shortly.

Almost all the dogs were taken from the city last evening. Some were sold here and

STILL BELIEVES IN MAHER.

Billy Madden Thinks the Irish Champie Will Do Better Next Time.

NEW YORK, March 18.-The news may as tonish a good many people, but the fact re-mains that Billy Madden sticks to Peter Maher, and will try to get another match for the Irishman. Said Madden to-night: "I have had to take an awful scoring or Maher, but I am not yet satisfied that my critice know as much as I do or as they think they do. I still believe that Peter Maher is a they do. I still believe that Peter Maher is a boxer capable of besting plenty of chaps who aspire higher than their prayers comprehend. Peter is terribly sore now and I think the experience he had in New Orleans has been a good thing for him. Anyhow, I am willing, in the face of all hostile criticism, to do something more for him. He has promised to abide by my directions hereafter, and I am going to take a chance. I think you will hear from Maher yet."

A majority of the sports who backed Maher have been congratulating themselves ever since the Fitzsimmons mil that the Irishman did not happen to put Fitz out in that first round when the New Zealander was so nearly ruined of his senses, and was only saved by the ringing of the gong.

"If Maher had knocked him out with that punch," they say, "we would all have gone broke on him when he met the next man, whether that next was Sullivan or anybody else. Forewarned was forearmed this trip, sure."

HALL AND PITZSIMMONS.

The Vanquisher of Maher Is Not Ready for

His Countryman. NEW YORK, March 18 .- [Special.]-In reply to Warden Lewis' challenge on behalf of Jim Hall, Bob Fitzsimmons said yesterday that he would only meet Hali at 158 pounds, "which," he added, "is four pounds above middle-weight, and is all I will give away. I am a middle-weight and do not intend to fight out of my class. Moreover, the stake of $5,000 is not enough. There must be $10,000 a side when I meet Hall. But there is no use a side when I meet Hall. But there is no use in talking about it so long as eatch weight is mentioned. Beside, I want to rest a while before fighting again."

When Fitz's words were repeated to Warren Lewis he remarked that Fitz was afraid of Hall, and wil! put forward any excuses that came to mind to prevent meeting him. "He is inconsistent, though," continued Lewis, "and his own statements convict him. He wants to fight in his class, yet he gave away ten pounds or more to Peter Maher, the heavy-weight. He wants a stake of $10,000 a side, and also wants a rest, yet he is quoted as being anxions to make a match at once with Ted Pritchard for a purse. That kind of talk is easily seen through, and I think the public will easily see through it."

Lewis did not take down his forfeit of $1,000. Jimmy Carroll stated in the Hoffman House on Thursday night that he would like to match Fitzsimmons against Charley Mitchell.

CORBETT HAS FRIENDS.

me Cincinnati People Have a Notion Follow James' Fortunes. Everybody does not forsake Corbett in his proposed battle with Sullivan. The Times Stor has this to say about it: There is no denying the fact that "Pompadour Jim" Corbett will have a lot of Cincinnati folk on his staff all pulling for him to win on the fateful day-September 7-which will make or break John L. Sullivan. In the places where the lovers of pugilistic sports congregate, talk is already running largely to that event so many months away The Jackson-Slavin contest at the National Club in London, late in May, pales in comparison. "One thing is sure," remarked "Pete" Nolan, of fistic fame, this morning, "Corbett is the only one who would face Sullivan. The big fellow ought to win if he can get into condition, but a man cannot keep up the gait at which he is reported as traveling and not suffer. Sporting life will "do" the best of them. You couldn't drag Charley Mitchell into a ring with Sullivan. Show me a time that he has ever made a fight? He got Sullivan to give him the best of everything, and then led him a foot race over in France. Corbett is plucky. He will have to fight and he knows it. He could not pursue Mitchell's tactics when he opposed Sullivan for an instant. The crowd wouldn't have it." "Corbett is the only one who would face

Direction to England. NEW YORK, March 18 .- [Special.]-Charley Mitchell and Paddy Slavin have made up their minds that the atmosphere of the United States is unhealthy at this season and they will avoid it by going back to England from Canada, by the way of Halifax. They had an engagement in this city for next week, but canceled it. When this news became known yesterday it was the almost universal opinion that Mitchell and Slavin did not have the nerve to face any

Their recent bluff at Sullivan would have been referred to with too much frequency to have been tolerated even by the experienced Mitchell, and the pair of travelers made up their minds to go home, especially as the champion is now matched and further flings for advertisement in his direction would have been out of the question. During the week Mitchell has had something to say about Sullivan at his exhibitions in Canada, and Paddy Slavin has two or three times tried a hand in the same line. But the chance for that game has now departed, and the couple of talkers determined to do likewise. Corbett and Jim Daiy will fill out the engagement made by the runaway boxers, Their recent bluff at Sullivan would hav

TRYING FOR RAYMOND.

He May Be Signed To-Day Because Denny Cannot Be Found.

The management of the local ball club have not heard from Jerry Denny and they cannot discover where he is. They want a man to take third base so as to use Farrell as a utility man. Consequently they are now lickering with Raymond. Henry H. Ray mond, Manager Buckenberger says, will be mond, Manager Buckenberger says, will be used as a general utility man when he is signed, and he is ready to sign. He was Captain of the Louisville team when they won the Association pennant.

The directorate know their own business probably better than outsiders, but if Raymond turns out as good as Denny might he will be a star. The trouble always is here that first intentions are swerved by outside talk. A man like Anson always makes up his mind to take a man according to his impressions. He took Cliff Carroll and got a winner although outsiders discarded him. Who knows what Denny's qualifications would be here this year? By all means give Denny a chance if terms can be made with him.

PRIDDY TALKS BUSINESS

He Will Run Jordan on Fair Busine Terms in This City.

Peter Priddy called at this office vesterday nd left the following statement: "I am willing to make a match with Mr. Jordan right away, but we must have a fair deal. I will run Jordan a three-mile race for $250 a side, and 70 per cent of the receipts to the winner and 30 to the loser, each man to the winner and 39 to the loser, each man to pay his own expenses to run in Pittsburg, which is the best city in the United States for a foot race. Or I will give him $50 expenses if we run for $250 a side and the winner take 75 and the loser 25 per cent of the receipts. If either of these terms are suitable to Jordan, I will send him articles at once. My representative in the meantime is the sporting editor of The Disparch. I in-sist on running not sooner than eight weeks from now. Any responsible paper in Chi-cago will do for me as stakeholder."

New York, March 18 .- The Executive Con nistee of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association fixed the following chedules for the season. LAWMAKING IN OHIO.

Comple of New Rathroad Bills Introdu

in the Legislature. COLUMBUS, O., March 18.—[Special.]—Two more railroad bills were introduced in the House to-day. The first provides that no person shall be employed by a railroad company in continuous service for more than 15 hours, when they shall have a lay-off of 8 hours before again being called upon to go on duty. Telegraph operators are included, and a severe penalty is attached for any violation of the law. The second bill amends the section that prevents the employment of inexperienced conductors and engineers so as to include flagmen. It provides that flagmen for passenger trains shall have two years' experience as brakemen. In addition this clause is added: "And all persons emyears experience as oracement. In addition this clause is added: "And all persons employed in the capacity of flagman of either freight, passenger or construction trains shall be held equally responsible with the conductor for the protection of the trains on which they are employed."

The Finance Committee has reported back favorably and recommended the passage of a bill providing for the erection of an insane asylum in the northeastern part of the State. STATE TAX DECISIONS.

Very Important Ones Handed Down by Judge Simonton, at Harrisburg.

Harriseuro, March 18.—Judge Simonton left for Florida, to-day, but before going handed down opinions in anumber of State tax cases that have been pending for some time. In the case of the New York, Lake Eric and Western Railroad Company, an appeal from tax on loans, that it was not liable to tax in respect of $1,050,000 bonds held by a corpora-tion which had paid a tax on net earnings that to tax the income derived from the bonds as net earnings, and then to tax the bonds themselves is to impose double tax-ation, which is not permissable in the ab-sence of express authority of law, the court decides, however, that the tax upon net decides, however, that the tax upon net earnings is not a tax upon property, but upon the franchise of the corporation, and that, therefore, the result of taxing the net earnings of companies owning the bonds and also the bonds would not be double taxation. The court decides, also, that the Commonwealth can collect tax under the act of July 1, 1889, only for the portion of the year subsequent to that date. gation Company, tax on capital stock for 1830, the court decides that the company is taxable on its whole capital stock, and direct judgment for the Common wealth for directs judgment for the Commonwealth for $6,225 50.

In the case against the Jefferson Railroad Company, for tax on loans for 189-30, the court decides that the company is not liable for tax in respect of bonds which were issued and sold outside of Pennsylvania to non-residents of the State, but which were not known when the tax became due or at any other time, to be held or owned by residents of Pennsylvania, but that it is liable in respect to bonds which have not been issued or sold or payable outside of the State. Judgment for the Commonwealth, in each case, $996 30.

In the case against the Western Land and Improvement Company, tax on capital stock for 1801, the court decides that the Commonwealth is entitled to tax in respect of amounts reported to the Auditor General, as dividends of profits, but which were really dividends of capital. Judgment for the Commonwealth, $3,882 11.

BRADDOCK'S BUDGET.

Wilmerding's New School to Be Dedicat

No Free Delivery. BEADDOCK, March 18.—[Special.]—The dedication of the new school building at Wilmerding will take place April 9 with unusually imposing ceremonies. A big parade of Senior and Junior O. U. A. M. and other pa-triotic orders of surrounding towns will take place. North Star Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., will present a fine silk flag. County Su-M., will present a fine silk flag. County Superintendent Hamilton will make an address. The building cost over $40,000.

The report circulated that Homestead is to get free mail delivery soon, that it has been promised by Hon. John Dalzell and Hon. A. K. Craig, proves to be without foundation. The town has neither the 10,000 population necessary nor $10,000 yearly postal revenue. Postmaster Sheets, of the Braddock office, said to-day: "I will be in a position in two weeks to demand the system for Braddock."

Harry N. Scott, of this place, a young lawyer recently admitted to practice in the Allegheny county bar, received a letter from a green goods man, singing himself Charles Bostwick and his address 2163 Eight: avenue, New York, asking him to take the agency for his "goods." Attorney Scott turned the letter over to Roger O'Mara, who referred the case to Inspector Silvis. The latter said nothing could be done, as the operator practiced in another State. A large number of these letters have been received by Braddock people for the past week.

QHOULISH THRIFT. The Mercenary Chum of a Dead Man Tries to Take Everything in Sight. Massillon, March 18. - [Special] - John n the Drake Coal Company's mine to-day The dead man boarded with August Braughman, his working partner in the mine, and the body was brought to his home in this city. When Coroner Openheimer arrived at the house he found the inmates rumnging Mera's trunk, having secured a certificate of deposit for $375. Braughman claimed that $45 was due him for board, which is known to be false; demanded $10 for keeping the body in the house, and threatened to throw it in the street if the amount was not paid. The corpse was removed to an undertaking

The corpse was removed to an undertaking room.

The chum of the deceased also coolly informed the Coroner that he wanted $100 of the money paid over to him to buy a coffin, and $20 to put up a monument to attest his grief. Braughman got on a big drunk this afternoon and would have been locked up but for the fact that his wife is ill. It is known that Mera possessed considerable more money than the certificate, and the Coroner got out a search warrant to-night.

FUN AMID POLITICAL STRIFE. Mythical Colonel Has a Big Bo Blair County for Congress.

HOLLIDAYSBURG, March 18 -[Special.]-The heat of the present political strite in Blair county has been greatly relieved by the running of a series of letters in an Altoona paper, espousing the cause of Coionel Eras-tus Briggs for Congress. The unknown cor-respondent styles himself "The Rambler," respondent styles himself "The Rambler," and his letters are modeled after the his toric Junius contributions. The special virtues of the several candidates before the tues of the several candidates before the people are embodied in this Mr. Briggs, and interviews with prominent politicians of the county, favoring his candidacy, are printed. Now, the truth of the matter is that "Colonel Briggs" is a mythical personage, and the loke has been rather carried too far by the issuing of regular tickets, with his name heading the list, which have been scattered at every polling place. The primaries occur to-morrow, and while the regular Republican ticket, headed by J. D. Hicks of Altoons, will easily win out, it is also quite as toons, will easily win out, it is also quite as certain that many of the farmers will vote for that ideal personage, Colonel Briggs.

THE FACTIONS WORKING.

rters of Quey and Dalzell Doing The Best in Armstrong. KITTANNING, March 18.-[Special.]-It is stated by an organ to-day that in all prob ability the Democrats will not place any candidates in nomination this year. Thi s hardly true, as, the Democrats are wide awake to the serious factional fight in the Republican ranks, and may get their men Republican ranks, and may get their men in. Within the past week nearly every voter in the county has been receiving marked copies of the Philadelphia Inquirer, containing articles showing the good and strong points in Senator Quay's record and character. These articles are having great influence, especially in the country districts where the army vote is strong, and many votes which have been fluctuating between Quay and Dalzell are being made over to Quay. Meanwhile the friends of Dalzell are making a merry fight, and have succeeded in winning over two or three more country in winning over two or three more country papers to their side of the fence.

Youngstown, O., March 18.—[Special.]— Judge King, Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, to-night sent the following notice to each member of the com-

"You are hereby notified that there will be "You are hereby notified that there will be a meeting of the Republican State Central Committee at the rooms of the Lincoln League, Columbus, March 25, at 7:30 P. Applicants Are Disconcerted Over Christy's Sudden Move.

HIS REMONSTRANCES ACCEPTED.

It Makes a Big Business for the Other License Attorneys.

THE NAMES FOUND ON THE FATAL LIST

B. C. Christy's unexpected appearance in License Court caused a scramble among the various applicants and their attorneys. They all seemed scared, and attorneys and applicants crowded the Clerk of Courts' office and Attorney Christy's office all day waiting for a chance to see if people they were interested in appeared on the fatal list. As predicted the night before, Mr Christy made application to court yesterday and all his remonstrances were admitted, but no more were filed. He had a corps of clerks at work most of the day yesterday entering the remonstrances on the records and classifying them. Owing to the immense amount of work necessary the public was shut out until the task was completed. This increased the anxiety.

The Christy remonstrances, however, are nearly all against new applicants and people who have been refused before. Nearly all of the remonstrances are based on information received from the famous "Doomsday Book." The fact that an applicant has been refused license is taken as evidence that the place is not needed, and remonstrance is therefore made. The fact of a man having held license is also regarded as proof of necessity, and the Court has indiested that nearly all the people who now have license will be continued in business.

Christy in the Employ of Manufacturers. B. C. Christy is employed in many cases by mill owners who do not want saloons near their works, and by churches who object to drinking places near the houses of worship.
